

	<h1>Course Information</h1>
	Course Name: Where is She Now? The Closure Conundrum
	Course Developer: Valerie S. D'Intino, ENP
	Course Hour(s): 1	Target Audience: Telecommunicators

I. Description:

- In this session we will explore the stark likelihood of never knowing the end of the story (and what to do about it). Was the suspect convicted? Have they gotten the help they needed? Did they recover? Are they in a new home and thriving? Where is she now?

II. Pre-requisites:

- None

III. Objectives:

- Identify areas of risk to our wellbeing when faced with no closure.
- Define why it matters to not have closure and how it can affect us.
- Provide self-care template for recovery.

IV. Facility Needs:

- Tables
- Chairs
- ADA Accessible Facility
- Bathroom Facility

V. Equipment/AV Needs:

- Projector
- Screen or SMART/View Board
- Computer or HDMI Connection

VI. Other Needs:

- If offered virtually, platform must allow students the ability to engage and ask question of the instructor via chat or otherwise.

VII. Special Notes:

- Class is limited to 45 students unless other arrangements are made with instructor.

VIII. Maintenance:

The course information will be reviewed at least annually.